Edison-Miller Family Papers

Title

[X104T-F] Edison, Theodore M.

Description

These documents consist of correspondence to and from Theodore M. Edison (1898-1992), youngest child of Thomas and Mina Edison. All three items are undated. The first letter, by Mina Edison, was probably written during the summer of 1901, when Mina and her son Charles were vacationing at Saranac Lake in New York and Theodore was in Akron with his grandmother and Aunt Mary. The second item, dating from July or August 1909, is a brief postcard sent by Theodore from Camp Pasquaney in Bridgewater, New Hamphire. The last letter, addressed to "dear grandma and family," was probably written by Theodore in 1909 or 1910, while he was vacationing with his family at their winter home in Fort Myers, Florida.

These three documents were added in August 2012.

Uncle Charlie, Aunt May and Katherine that if you sleep better without a nap allright to omit it also if you want to go to Sunday School with them I think it would be nice for you. They must all use their judgment about you now.

Lovingly Mama.

GLENMONT.
LLEWELLYN PARK.

My darling Baby.

Do you think of Mama a little bit and miss her a little bit. I do miss our little baby boy very much indeed. Sister and Papa too are away so Uncle Charlie and Mama are alone tonight.

Aunt Grace started last evening for Boston on Lun way to Nova Scotia + Miss Ethel Wilkinson must write Lun - Mama almost must too but decided to wait until next week. Sister is to let us know whether she will remain in the Adirondacks or come for the trip with us. She can come down with Mrs. Douglass then Gordon Charles and Mama will not go up there. Mama has been in New York all day today and feels a little tired but she thought she must write a little "goodnight" and "God bless you" to Lun baby before retiring herself.

Kiss darling grandmother and Aunt Mary for mama and Mama would like to hear you this minute in Lun arms. Take good care of Katherine and tell

SEMINOLE LODGE
FORT MYERS, FLORIDA

Dear grandma and family:- I am having a fine time. We have had quite a lot of pets but some got eaten up by the others and some got away. The list is as follows, chickens, 2 cats, 2 monkeys, 2 coons, 1 dog that I have aunt grace to thank for, 1 calf, 1 cow, 1 pelecon, 1 pig, 1 gopher, 1 terapin, and 2 alligators.

Out side of pets are rats and birds with out no. and the other day we smelt a skunk that seemed rather near. I forgot to say that we have a horse beside. Thank aunt ever so much for her dog. The pelecon tame and flys all over the yard.

I wish that you were down here with us.

The other day we went to the moving pictures on our way back we ran into a school of about 200 fish which were jumping and splashing. The water was so transparent so you can all show pretty it was.

I can sail all alone now.

Write soon.

Love to all,

Theodore
